There has been an enormous amount of interest in Iridology Continuing Education Programs through Joyful Living Services.

We are happy to announce that we now have 2 Continuing Education Programs to follow our Iridology Certification.

1. IIPA Certification

To become Certified by IIPA (International Iridology Practitioner's Association <http://www.iridologyassn.org>) through Joyful Living Services complete the following:

- Certified Iridologist Course - Complete and pass the 3 levels of iridology (beginning, intermediate, advanced, final exam) and become a Certified Iridologist approved by the Board of Registered Nursing and Joyful Living Services. Special Price: $450 when 3 courses purchased together (normally $900)
- Anatomy and Physiology Course – Complete and pass the Certified Anatomy and Physiology course. This course is approved by the Board of Registered Nursing and Joyful Living Services. A&P is required by IIPA for certification. All Iridologists need an understanding of how the various organs, glands and tissues interact. $300
- Purchase and Study: "Iridology: A Handbook" by Kianna Smith. $40
- IIPA Exam: Apply to take the IIPA Certification Exam. Apply through Joyful Living Services. Includes a 1-year membership to IIPA. $175

Once the 4 items above are completed you will have a "Double Certification" through Joyful Living Services as well as through the International Iridology Practitioner's Association. A whole world of iridology will open up to you!!

If you are already a Certified Iridologist through us, you can upgrade your certification by completing items 2, 3, and 4 above.

Information about the International Iridology Practitioner's Association:

IIPA Members

IIPA Members Include Ellen Jensen, Bill Carodanna, Dr. Danielle Lorito, Leonard Melmhaurer, Dr. Carol Magda, Toni Miller, Joyful Living Services, and many more prestigious iridologists.

IIPA Membership Benefits Include:

Membership in the International Iridology Practitioners Association (IIPA) is an important avenue to be connected with your industry, and a great way to remain updated in Iridology. The benefits listed below are but a few of the many benefits you will receive as a member of IIPA.

Publications: We provide communication and information regarding the latest research in Iridology, as well as keeping members updated as to anything that affects the field of Iridology. Your subscription to the Comprehensive Iridologist Newsletter is the official voice of IIPA. This allows you to remain connected to the world of Iridology through IIPA and it provides health information concerning an array of natural healing methodologies. Monthly Broadcast Emails are sent out with new and updated information for your clients and your practice.

Website: We maintain a website: www.iridologyassn.org with all current information regarding IIPA Instructors, IIPA Certified Iridologists, our certification process, upcoming seminars or classes for educational opportunities, frequently asked questions, special events, the Board of Directors and other important information. Here you will have access to a Marketplace for purchasing published Iridology books and other Iridology accessories.

Referrals: Certified Members are eligible, if desired, to receive referrals for their services when the Central Office receives inquiries. As a Certified Iridologist you are eligible, if desired, to be listed on the website with all your contact information.

Professional Development: IIPA provides you with the pathway to becoming a Certified Iridologist by offering certification courses. Other development includes continuing education courses, Instructor certification, annual IIPA Symposiums, materials for use in business and more.

Assistance: At times you may need or desire assistance from the IIPA Central Office. We offer a toll-free telephone number to better serve you.

Leadership: Opportunities are available to serve on committees, to promote the growth of Iridology and natural health care, and become an IIPA Certified Instructor.

The International Iridology Practitioners Association maintains high ethical standards and encourages professional competencies within our membership.
