

The World of Face Reading

Your face is phenomenal. It's a treasure map filled with fascinating facts and insights. Every day we look at the face, and what do we see? A nose, a chin, eyes or lips? Or can you see passionate eyebrows or sensitive ones? A determined jaw or a caring chin. An intuitive ear or artistic nose?

Ever wonder what the features of your face indicate? "Your Features are Your Teachers." They are facing you with a fortune of information. The features of your face provide valuable clues about yourself, your health, your genetic makeup, and the personality of your true nature.

Face reading is fun and fascinating. It's a powerful assessment tool for self-discovery that can expand and catapult the understanding of yourself and others on many levels. Our face tells our story. Discover the fundamental face-reading, that you can use in life and in combination with iridology.

Canadian, Jackie Latimer has been in the holistic field for over 40 years. She is a Registered Massage Therapist, Certified Colon Hydrotherapist, Iridologist, Iridology Instructor, Face Reader and Body-Mind Analysis Teacher. She owns and operates Cellular Health Inc., a holistic health clinic offering therapeutic services, classes, and certification courses.

Jackie is a life-long learner and a passionate educator who loves to teach how to read the language of the body and understand its innate wisdom through its many holographic maps. Jackie teaches nationally, internationally, and online courses, presenting detailed information in a practical manner that you can put to immediate use.