

So you want to make a Profitable Business with Iridology, huh?

Angie Ates, Public Speaker-Natural Health Practitioner-Trainer-Culture Creator

Dedicated to Empowering and Equipping others, Angie Ates achieves this thru education; whether via speaking, training or hands-on Shamanic work.

Beginning her career in Corporate Executive Leadership for multi-store regions at the age of 25; led to her role and accomplished skill-set of accountability/profitability for multi-store regions with over $40 million in annual revenues. Whether increasing sales, decreasing losses or cultivating talent, she was always Empowering and Equipping her team thru Succession Planning programs. This drive and success carried forward as she repurposed herself, after being diagnosed with multiple auto-immune diseases. Seeking answers, she began her studies in natural medicine options and obtained the extensive certifications of Board Certified Naturopath, Board Certified Complementary Alternative Health Practitioner and Master Herbalist.

Angie Ates was then ultimately equipped; and she owned/operated three integrated profitable / 6-figure clinics and supported the care of over 5000 clients. Continuing to Empower and Equip herself, her studies continued in BioEnergetic solutions and shamanic studies, as a Full Mesa Shaman. Finding the natural health education arena to be lacking, Angie Ates became the founder and CEO of Academy EPIC, an integrated natural health educational platform created by Practitioners for Practitioners. Academy EPIC was founded on the principles of Empowering and Equipping others; its™ programs hold international accreditation and are based on the “Art of Mastering EPIC Client Results”.

Angie Ates is an International speaker and has trained over 10K Practitioners worldwide. Featured in over 200 natural health training videos; her speaking focus is on integrating holistic disciplines with Passion, Purpose and Profit- The Trilogy Model of an EPIC Practitioner. In her current position as Director of the Association of Complementary & Alternative Health Practitioners, A.C.A.H.P; she promotes its purpose of uniting all natural health disciplines while Empowering and Equipping with Passion, Purpose and Profit.
